*Note: This map presents generalized information about the location of archaeological sites along unincorporated King County shorelines; these sites are not mapped. RCW 42.17.310 makes archaeological site location information exempt from public release in order to diminish the risk that sites will be vandalized or looted. It is illegal to knowingly disturb, remove or sell archaeological resources on public or private lands without a state-issued permit (27.44 RCW, 27.53 RCW). For more information about these sites, please contact the King County Historic Preservation Program.
